WELCOME MESSAGE

DR. JACKLINE A, TUNG'OMBE

I am pleased to have this opportunity to express my deep gratitude to the Board of Trustees, our partners and supporters, field workers, management staff and volunteers for the successful accomplishments of our programs in 2022. Women access to health and education is still has multi-dimensional challenge that need multiple perspectives and multiple approaches to thoroughly understand and find the best solutions to. Women access to health and education needs to be a joint effort in order to be successful. Therefore, the participation of different stakeholders, can contribute greatly to these efforts.

I call upon our partners, donors, supporters and well-wishers to join us in moving forward with our vision to bring equality in health and education. PGWOCODE Foundation is at a significant crossroad. In the process of developing our strategic plan for the next five years (2024-2029), we have had the chance to look back and reflect on the work that we accomplished since the founding of our organization about 9 years ago. PGWOCODE Foundation was launched in 2015, in response to the child marriage and teen pregnancies in Rukwa region.

We would like to thank PGWOCODE board, & staff, community members, partners and funders for participating in and supporting our journey in service for the vulnerable people of Tanzania. PGWOCODE Foundation looks forward to the next five years as we implement our Strategic Plan 2024. With your help we are confident that we will be successful in our mission and continue to be an organization that everyone own and contribute to its success.
